Dear Jose:

Enclosed are photocopies of the application forms submitted by the various applicants for the Lucile Elliott Scholarship for 1972. All application forms were received on or before May 15 as required in the information brochure distributed announcing the scholarship. Unfortunately, however, the application of Ms. King was received one day late, i.e., on Tuesday, May 16. I don't know to what extent that should affect our judgment.

Please look over the applications and as soon as possible, preferably no later than Monday June 5 send a note back to me listing in order of priority the top three applicants as you judged them. I look forward to seeing you in Chicago next month.

Sincerely,

Edwin M. Schroeder
